Gokuraku-ji Temple,

the second temple in Shikoku Sacred Sites

Gokurakuji, Shikoku's second sacred site, is a temple with many attractions, including a statue of Ansan Daishi who bestows blessings and a cedar tree of longevity that is said to have been hand-planted by Ambassador Kobo. There is also an "Omokaru Jizo" on the approach between the main hall and the Daishi-do hall. It is said that after making a wish to this Jizo, if you think it is lighter than you expected, your wish will likely come true, and if you think it is heavier, it will be difficult for your wish to come true. Why not visit Gokurakuji's most important Jizo statue?
