Introduction to Matsuyama Castle

Matsuyama Castle is a historic castle located in Ehime Prefecture, Shikoku, and is one of only 12 castle towers in Japan that were built before the Edo period. In addition to the mountain trail, you can also visit the castle tower by ropeway or lift. The castle tower offers a wonderful view of Matsuyama City, and is also known as a famous spot for cherry blossom viewing in spring. This is a recommended spot for travelers interested in Japanese history and culture. There are other castles in Shikoku such as Uwajima Castle, Kochi Castle, and Marugame Castle, so if you are interested in visiting castles, please come visit us.

There are four valuable castles in Shikoku, including Matsuyama Castle. Actually, I haven't been to Uwajima Castle yet, so I'll introduce it to you the next time I go. Uwajima also has a local dish called ``Taimeshi'', so you might want to enjoy the gourmet food as well.
